

AY2022 Application Guidelines for Rikkyo Promising Future Scholarship
For September Enrollees in AY2022 through English Track
Selection System

1. Objective

The Rikkyo Promising Future Scholarship (“Scholarship”), for which eligibility is determined at the time of application, aims at excellent privately financed international students from various regions and countries who display a strong desire to study at Rikkyo University, thereby welcoming excellent international students from various regions and countries across the world, contributing to the further internationalization of Rikkyo, and nurturing students to use their studies at Rikkyo to play an active international role in their future careers.

2. Student Eligible for the Scholarship

The subject of the Scholarship shall be those students who enroll in PEACE program in September through the English track selection system.

PEACE students to be enrolled in September belonging to the College of Law and Politics, College of Intercultural Communication, and the Global Liberal Arts Program.

3. Scholarship Amount, Payment Method and Period

Annual amount of one million and five hundred thousand (1,500,000) yen shall be paid by appropriating five hundred thousand (500,000) yen to each of the payments for the first (Fall) semester after admission, and the Spring and Fall semesters in the following academic year.

4. Number of Recipients

10 students

5. Application Eligibility and Requirements

- (1) Students who have or will have the “College Student” status of residence at the time of admission; and
- (2) Students accepted for enrollment to Rikkyo through the English track selection system.

6. Applications

An applicant for the Scholarship shall apply through the online application system at the time of application for PEACE program.

7. Selection and Determination of Prospective Recipients

Prospective recipients shall be selected from among applicants selected by each faculty during the admissions assessment process.

8. Announcements

Prospective recipients shall be notified of the awarding of the Scholarship through the online application system at the time they are notified of acceptance into Rikkyo.

9. Important Notices

- In the light of the spirit of the Scholarship, the recipients of the Scholarship shall endeavor in their study at Rikkyo and complete their courses, while serving as a good role model for others.
- The Scholarships shall be withdrawn in the event that it transpires that a recipient does not have the “College Student” status of residence after enrollment. In that case, the recipient must return the amounts covered by the Scholarship.
- The Scholarship shall not be paid for semesters in which a student takes a leave of absence. Also, payment of the Scholarship may be suspended when it is recognized that circumstances have arisen in which it is not appropriate to award the Scholarship, such as the recipient abandoning their studies at Rikkyo.
- A recipient shall forfeit eligibility to receive the Scholarship, when they are subject to withdrawal or expulsion from Rikkyo, or, when it is deemed appropriate to disqualify them from receiving the Scholarship due to suspension from classes or disciplinary action, etc.
- Regarding (1) in 5. “Application Eligibility and Requirements,” this requirement may be relaxed if it is considered reasonable that a recipient cannot obtain the “College Student” status of residence due to the influence of COVID-19.
